

1 of the Legislative Branch Committee that there would even 2 be an organizational session, and there is such organiza-
3 tional session.

4 Now, I ask you, isn't it redundant to have an 5 organizational session, one regular session, two more 6 regular sessions, first called by majority, secondly by 7 three-fifths vote, then a number of special sessions which 8 the Governor may call or which may be called by three-fifths
9 vote or by the presiding officers?

10 If your Minority Report passes, we shall ask
11 that there be some discussion on that one.

12 Now, you have to agree, the majority didn't 13 know how to fix the number of days. In fact, they them-
14 selves were so mixed up on this that in the compromise
15 there was a confusion of redundancy. Read this section 16 of the Majority Report on this matter and come to your 17 own conclusion as to whether there was an fixation of 18 ideas.

19 Wouldn't it be lots easier and more logical to 20 say that each year the legislature will take the time that 21 it needs and set the date of adjournment as soon as the
